PRE 210: Career and Life Planning

Instructor:

PRE 210: Career and Life Planning is a career development course that will help you commit to an action plan of exploring, engaging and implementing your career and academic interests. Career development starts by combining information about yourself with information about the world of work and then acting on that new set of information. Career development is a lifelong process – this class will help you get started.

This is a writing-intensive course. Superior communication skills are a necessity for both academic and career success. For this reason, PRE 210 emphasizes the development of all forms communication (written, oral and interpersonal).

Learning Goals and Outcomes:
- You will support and be supported by your classmates in the process of career exploration
- You will be challenged to think beyond your own thoughts and beliefs about careers and yourself
- You will be encouraged to trust your own decision making
- You will access and evaluate a wide variety of career exploration resources (web, print materials, on-campus resources, people)
- You will be expected to demonstrate written, oral and interpersonal communication skills throughout this course

Course Fee
A $20 fee covers the costs of one career assessment: the Strong Interest Inventory (SII). Class will not meet on 9/5 to allow time for taking the assessment, which will be available at career.ku.edu, Career & Job Search Preparation, Career Assessments. Credit cards (VISA or MasterCard) are encouraged because you will be using an online payment portal to access the SII. Checks or exact cash are also acceptable, but you will need to visit the University Career Center, Burge Union, Rm. 110 to pay in person and to receive instructions.

Completion of this career assessment by the due date is a requirement of the course. If you arrive at class on the day of the interpretation, and have not yet taken the SII, you will be asked to go to the computer lab and take it at that time. Failure to complete the SII will result in an incomplete for the course.

Attendance Policy and Classroom Behavior
PRE 210 is an activity-based class where your participation is vital. The learning that takes place in these activities cannot be reproduced outside of class. For this reason, attendance is required and will be taken every class. No more than 1 absence is allowed. After 1, there will be a 3 point deduction for each additional absence.

Attendance is taken with a sign-in sheet that is available at the beginning of class. If you do not sign in, you will be counted as absent. If you come late to class, you will not be allowed to sign in and will be counted as absent. If you leave early without getting permission, you will be counted as absent.

If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed and get any handouts that were used in class.

Any classroom behaviors that detract from your learning or the learning of others will not be tolerated. Please follow the guidelines below to ensure a productive and safe environment for all:

- Arrive on time
- Don’t pack up until you are dismissed
- Turn off your cell phones
- No text messaging
- No headphones
- Newspapers, other reading and homework from other classes are NOT allowed
- Be respectful of the person who is speaking by giving him/her all your attention (including another student, an invited speaker, instructor, etc.)
- If you bring food/drink with you, take it with you or dispose of it accordingly
- Obtain instructor approval to use a computer for taking notes

Violation of any of these policies will result in an automatic absence for the day. Further sanctions, such as removal from the classroom, will be enforced if the behavior continues.

Late Assignments

There will be an automatic 10% deduction in total points for EACH day an assignment is late. If you know in advance that you will be absent from class the day an assignment is due, turn in the assignment early or e-mail the assignment to your instructor on or before the day it is due. This policy does not apply to Extra Credit – late papers will not be accepted for any Extra Credit assignment.

Academic Misconduct/Plagiarism

All written assignments should be your own original work. Some examples of plagiarism are:
1) Copying someone else’s work, word-for-word, and turning it in as if it’s your own
2) Using portions of exact text from a source without changing it or giving credit to the author
3) Making minimal changes to a text source, but passing it off as your own material or idea

These problems can generally be addressed through the use of proper citations, quotations, and paraphrasing (when you have a thorough understanding of your material). Contact your instructor when you have questions about what constitutes plagiarism! Plagiarism is a serious offense which can result in loss of grade or university disciplinary action.

For more information on academic misconduct, please consult KU policies at http://www.writing.ku.edu/~writing/instructors/guides/academic_misconduct.shtml

Disabilities

The Office of Disability Resources (DR), 22 Strong Hall, 785-864-2620 (v/tty), coordinates accommodations and services for KU students with disabilities. If you have a disability for which you may request accommodation in KU classes and have not contacted DR, please do so as soon as possible. Please also contact the instructor privately in regard to this course.

University Career Center (UCC)

The UCC will be an important resource for you in this course. In addition to meeting there once as a class for the Internship lecture (see schedule for date), you will want to access the resources on their website: http://career.ku.edu/ The UCC has many web and print resources on career and major choices, internships, jobs, international opportunities, and job search tools that will be valuable beyond the duration of this course – use them! In addition, the UCC has career coaching services that are free of charge.
Writing Center

Students are strongly encouraged to use the services of the Writing Center (www.writing.ku.edu). There are multiple locations around campus with a variety of hours and means to work with them. Turning in a poorly written or edited assignment will not be tolerated. For this reason, there will be a ½ point deduction off the total points for an assignment for every circled error.

Extra Credit Options

1. University Internship Fair (10 points) The 2013 Internship Fair will be held on Wednesday, November 13 from 2:00 – 5:00 p.m. at the Kansas Union Ballroom. Attend and write a two page paper addressing the points below. Full credit will be given to thorough and thoughtful papers. Due by 11/21.
   • Reasons why students should attend this event – describe any elements you found surprising.
   • Highlight a specific company/position/opportunity that you found meaningful.
   • Highlight a conversation you had with an employer – what did you talk about? What advice did they give you?

Quick Tips for Getting the Most Out of the Career Fair/Internship Expo

• Do some advance research on attending employers – List is available at career.ku.edu
• Dress professionally and conservatively - wear pressed clothing that is clean and professional looking. You won’t get another chance to make a first impression!
• Bring copies of your resume if you want to be considered for positions.
• Prepare a quick 20 second “commercial/intro” of yourself: name, major, careers you are exploring and any specific questions you have of them.
• It’s okay to be an exploring student at the fair, but be prepared to talk with an employer about some of your career and academic interests. “Hi, my name is Wendy and I’m a Geography major. I notice that you’re offering internships in public relations - that’s an interest that I have – can you tell me more about your internships?” or “Hi, my name is Tyler and I am exploring majors and careers right now – I noticed in the guide that you’re involved with helping at-risk teenagers develop coping skills – can you tell me more about that? I’m thinking of a psychology major and this is really interesting to me.”
• Make sure you check in at the student registration table and pick up a guide and map – the guide will contain a list and map of all the employers in the room.

2. Resume Wordle (10 points). This is a fun assignment that involves creating word clouds of an internship you’re interested in and your resume using www.wordle.net. Write an essay (see the Passing the Wordle Test assignment sheet for guidelines), attach the word clouds, the internship description and your resume. Due 12/3.

Tips on Earning Extra Credit

Turn in quality work on each assignment – you are not guaranteed all the points the assignment is worth just because you turn something in. Late papers will not be accepted.
