

Calendar of Events -

Fall 2019

International Professionals & Public Servants

This community is for students who enjoy interacting with international people and cultures, research-ing public policy and advocating for the public good. You'll learn about pathways such as: translation services, international education, international relations, diplomacy and government work.

September

19 Find Your KU Connection

4:30 - 6pm - McInnis Market

Everyone needs a mentor or a KU connection! Bring your laptop or mobile device and gain access to our free KU mentoring platform. KU alumni are waiting to connect with you! Free snacks and coffee provided.

22-29 International Consulting Project

Interested in international work, marketing or arts management? This is an exciting opportunity to develop employable skills on a short-term project with visiting students from a University in Germany on a consulting project for a local communication campaign. All Students are encouraged to apply. Apply here \(career.ku.edu/icp\) by Sept. 5th

October

02 Passport to Global Careers

5:30 - 7:00 pm, Burge A-B Forum

Union Discover skills and experiences needed to succeed in global careers through cross-cultural activities and a Q&A with experts in international careers

08 Career Conversations: Careers in Politics and Public Service

5:00 - 7:00 pm, Burge Union, Forum C

The Dole Institute of Politics and the KU Career Center are teaming up to present a panel discussion on careers in politics, public service and policy with current and former KU students. After the discussion ends, stick around for free pizza, chat with the panelists and meet fellow students.

18 Global Bridge Event

8 am - 5pm, Kansas City

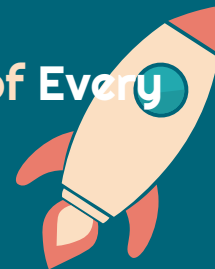

Interested in a career in International Trade? Apply to this program to learn about companies, internships and career opportunities with companies in KC area engaged in international trade. Apply through HireJayhawks.com

The First Friday of Every Month!

LinkedIn Photo Friday

11 a.m. - 1 p.m., 102 Summerfield

Your photo is the first opportunity you have to make a good impression on LinkedIn, HireJayhawks.com, and other social media platforms. Make it current and professional by dropping in the Career Center to have your free headshot taken! (Sept. 6, Oct. 4, Nov. 1, Dec. 6)

November

05 International & Public Service

Fellowships

4:00 - 5:00 pm, 206 Summerfield

Discover how fellowships can help you fund internships, study abroad and post-graduate study while getting a start to building your toolkit for a successful application. Partnership with Anne Wallen, Office of Fellowships.

08 Leveraging Your International Experience

2:30 - 5:00 pm, 201 Summerfield

Looking to create a standout resume and ace an interview? This workshop is an opportunity to learn how you to build your intercultural experiences into your resume and cover letter while fine-tuning your interviewing skills.

KU UNIVERSITY
CAREER CENTER
The University of Kansas